

[Invitation to a dinner to meet Col. Richard M. Johnson, the Vice President of the United States, on 14th of October 1840]. Indianapolis, 1840.

Indianapolis, September 14, 1840.

Sir,

Col. Richard M. Johnson, the Vice President of the United States, having accepted the invitation of the Democratic State Central Committee, will visit Indianapolis on Wednesday, the 14th of October next.

Arrangements will be made to honor our distinguished guest with a celebration suitable to the occasion. On behalf of our Democratic fellow citizens the undersigned Committee of Invitation respectfully invite you to be present at the meeting, and they fully authorize and request that you will extend the invitation to all such citizens of the United States as may be willing to attend.

Wm. J. Brown,

James Blake,

A. F. Morrison,

John L. Ketcham,

Henry M. Willson, Committee of Invitation.

INDIANAPOLIS IND. SEP 16

Seph 23

18³/₄ 6 24³/₄

Gen Joseph Desha Cynthiana Kentucky

19/4

10-98-1009.1.19.4